

LOCAL GOVERNMENT LITIGATION ATTORNEY: Assistant County Attorney 1 or 2

Pinellas County, Florida

The Pinellas County Attorney's Office seeks one experienced in-house attorney to litigate, try and appeal civil and administrative actions before the State and Federal Courts, hearing officers, and Administrative Law Judges. This position involves the handling of litigation involving the County or Constitutional Officers including but not limited to cases in one or more of the following areas: torts; employment; construction; real estate-related matters; inverse condemnation or eminent domain; and other civil and administrative litigation as assigned.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate will have significant first chair trial experience in a range of types of cases and venues, on behalf of a Florida local government. Minimum qualifications include admission to, and good standing with, the Florida Bar; and 1-4 years of litigation experience for Assistant County Attorney 1 ($60,174 - $96,283), or 5 years of litigation experience for Assistant County Attorney 2 ($93,454 - $149,510). Board Certification in an applicable area is preferred.

Compensation and Benefits

Salary and title will depend on qualifications. Pinellas County offers a comprehensive and competitive array of employee benefits (see www.pinellascounty.org/hr/whatweoffer).
